The drawing is self-explanatory, I have got nothing to add since I have no information on textures or other impressions. It most of all reminds me of a car with two round windows, at least some sort of manmade structure could be also part of a house. It felt as if we were high at elevation above the ground.

Target: Table and a man. Perhaps some resemblance from my orange element to that round yellow color on the center of the table.

Decoy1: Map of islands.

Decoy2: Concert with pyrotechnics.

11:12 PM End session.
