I could have worked harder on this one since there were some leads to follow through on, but overall this target signal was difficult, I still managed to get some concrete elements which made some sense as to what they are.

There is a building to the right. On the left is a rather large turquoise-blue dish or bowl which contains a white color and yellow sparkle, it appears to also have another such bowl or dish above it some distance above. There is a floor, structures nearby so it is not an open space. It is dark here.

Target: Illustration.

Decoy1: Car on a wet track with tires.

Decoy2: Portrait of a woman.

10:22 AM End session.
