"The Deconstructed Bird"

This target was strange to work with. It gave me no identifiable elements, and does not have a natural landscape. The main element is a big red sphere which is slightly elevated up above the floor and is not on the floor. From it are yellow appendages, blue appendages, and orange appendages, the appendages seem to come in pairs of two. The orange is also on the top as an orange cone or beaker. There seems to be a blue floor with a lighter colored gray-blue floor in the foreground. The two blue on the bottom are like feet flat against the floor. This all gives me associations to a deconstructed bird.

Target: Brick wall with windows.

Decoy 1: Army with pink smoke.

Decoy 2: Horse head decoration.
