Main element(s) of emphasis/importance: A red dish that has no bottom to it, down through it it connects into a tunnel that is in a vertical position. There is a strong gush of water through thick pipes and yellow lamps up above in the tunnel.

Describe shape, size, altitude, placement, significance: One significant half-circle lamp whose flat side is downward and the arch facing upward, it is at a bit of elevation above the water flow. There are probably three to five of these situated in the ceiling of the horizontal big pipe that is further down, not exactly along the very center line of the horizontal pipe, but slightly to the side of the top of that pipe.

Describe surroundings outside of target site: Not investigated.

Probable location on world map: Not investigated.

Emotions, ambience, feeling: None detected. It is just a place which doesn't say much about its own character in terms of feeling.

Significance and meaning of target: Not investigated.

What I think the target is,

- 1) A large industrial tunnel under ground which has lamps slightly off-center in the ceiling.
- 2) Water slide.
- 3) Natural water flow area.

Summary or additional explanations: Look for a large flowing gushing water. Look for one or several semi-circle or other yellow lamps that are set above the gushing water. Look for large pipes that go vertical and horizontal through which water flows.
